REFERENCE: Memorandum from [REDACTED] to I & S dated 2 November 1949, Subject as Above.

25X1A

OGC Has Reviewed

25X1A 1. There are no objections, from a security standpoint, of furnishing the Civil Service Commission with the statement of annual and sick leave, and efficiency ratings as shown in [REDACTED] memorandum of 27 October 25X1A 1949. The statement of [REDACTED] immediate superior contained in this same memorandum may be released but certain deletions should be made: 25X1A [REDACTED] name should be deleted and the name [REDACTED] where it appears in the first and second from the last paragraphs of his statement should also be deleted.

2. No security objections are seen to releasing [REDACTED] 25X1A memorandum of 11 October with accompanying medical information from the Medical Division's files. Likewise there are no objections to releasing the copies of the two letters from the Mayo Clinic, dated May 17 and May 24, 1948.
